PROJECTS

Sprinkle of Flavor

- Developed a recipe website "Sprinkle of Flavor" featuring diverse Indian recipes, implemented responsive design, curated content, and integrated multimedia elements.
- Proficiency in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, content creation, and project management.

The Last War

- Developed 'The Last War,' a browser-based game using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, emphasizing the race to plant trees before industrialization encroaches.
- Demonstrated proficiency in front-end web development and problem-solving, ensuring an engaging gaming experience.

Fashion In Focus

- In my role as a frontend developer for "Fashion in Focus," an innovative product development project, I contributed to creating a platform dedicated to predicting and forecasting future fashion trends. Leveraging my skills in web development, I collaborated on building the website's user interface and functionality.

Real Time Chat Application

- Developed a real-time chat application as a foundational project, demonstrating proficiency in frontend and backend development
